PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY SAMUEL SNOWDEN, ROYAL-STREET, ALEXANDRIA.

VOL. XIX.]

TUESDAY, JULY 21, 1818.

[No. 5284.]

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS and MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than co-lums of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases estimated desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir.

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthma, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.
To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders Violent cramps in Consumptions the stomach and Lowness of spirits back

Hysterical affection Gout in the stomach Inward weaknesses Pains in the limbs and debility Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of nature weakness, or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the num-advertisement.

VILLAGE GREATNESS.

IN every country village where Ten chimney smokes perfume the air, Contiguous to a steeple,
Great gentleness are found a score,
Who can't associate, any more,
With common "country people."

Jack Fallo, born among the woods,
From rolling logs, now rolls in goods, Enough a while to dash on—Tells negro stories—smokes segars—
Talks politics—decides on wars—
And lives in stylish fashion.

Tim Or Good, lately from the plough,
A polish'd gentleman is now,
And talks of country fellows:
But ask the fox what books he's read—You'll find the brain pan of his head
As empty as a bellows.

Miss Fiddle, lately from the wheel, Begins quite lady-like to feel,
And talks affectingly genteel,
And sings some tasty songs too;
But my veracity impeach,
If she can tell what part of speech Gentility belongs to.

Without one spark of wit refin'd,
Without one talent of the mind—
Genius or education,
Or family, or fame, to boast,
To see such gentry rule the roast,
Turns patience to vexation.

To clear such rubbish from the earth,
Though real genius—mental worth,
The aid of science lend you,
You might as well the sty refine,
Or cast your pearls before the swine,
They'd only turn and read you.

SHORT SERMON.

"Blessed are the poor in spirit." THUS our blessed Saviour opened his sermon on the mount—and from his example we may be assured, that humility is the richest garment the soul can wear.
By this word is to be understood, not an abject poorness of spirit, that would stoop to do a mean thing—but such a humble sense of human nature, as sets the hearts and affections right toward God, and gives us every temper that is tender and affectionate towards our fellow creatures. This is the soil of all virtue, where every thing good and lovely grows.

CONFIDENCE IN GOD.

When Mr. Dodd, in the time of the wars was plundered of all he had in the house, Mrs. Dodd was in great distress on that account. "Wife, (says he) be not troubled; I have yet a bond to live upon." "What bond?" says she. "Why this bond in the Hebrews—I will neither leave thee nor forsake thee—Come, let us put this bond in suit—LET US GO TO PRAYERS." The next morning his neighbors sent him in more than he had lost.

HOW TO WORK A PASSAGE UP A CANAL.

A countryman, who wanted a passage in a canal boat, applied to the skipper to know if he might not work his passage, as he could not afford money to pay it. The skipper assented, and set Dodge to leading the horse along the bank. The honest wight trudged fourteen miles to the end of the canal, without ever dreaming that he could have walked without the skipper's leave.

The following Noblemen are shortly expected to dine with Lord Exmouth, viz:—
Lord Plymouth, Lord Teignmouth, Lord
Falmouth, Lord Dartmouth, Lord Sidmouth,
Lord Weymouth, Lord Portsmouth, Lord Yarmouth, and Lord Cockermouth. The entertainment will be sumptuous, and if all their Lordships should sit down to it, there will be plenty of enjoyment for all the mouths. [London paper.]

"A French trader resident in Oxford of the name of Ducane, called on Mr. Wickham, a mercer who lived opposite University College, for a waistcoat piece, but could not recollect the name of the material he wished for. He said he thought it was "de English for de diable." Mr. Wickham mentioned several names of his infernal highness, such as Old Nick, Belzebub, &c. "No no, it was not dat" was the reply. At length Mr. W. thought of Satan. "O dat is vat I want," said Ducane, "I want a Satan vest coat." [Ibid.]

A lively French writer, in a comparative view of table tactics of the French and English, remarks, "that the manoeuvres at an English dinner are founded upon the same principle as the Russian discipline—not a moment is lost."

ALEXANDRIA: TUESDAY-MORNING, JULY 21, 1818.

IV. CANTO OF CHILDE HAROLD:

Childe Harold commences this canto in the long famed Venice, whose fall from greatness furnishes the exalted imagination of the author with a variety of melancholy reflections on her former grandeur and her present state of depression, and suggested to him some profound thoughts upon the pleasure that may be derived even from ruined states, and from the arts, tho' faded or sunk into decay, by the association of ideas. Thus Venice, though her glories have vanished, still continues to supply the world with the most interesting topics for contemplation, and subjects for every muse.

"In Venice Tasso's echoes are no more,
And silent rows the songless gondolier;
Her palaces are crumbling to the shore,
And music meets not always now the ear:
Those days are gone—but beauty still is here.
States fall, arts fade—but nature doth not die,
Not yet forget how Venice once was dear,
The pleasant place of all festivity:
The revel of the earth, the masque of Italy!

"But unto us she hath a spell beyond Her name in story, and her long array Of mighty shadows, whose dim forms depend
Above the dogeless city's vanish'd sway;
Ours is a trophy which will not decay
With the Rialto: Shylock and the Moor
And Pierre, cannot be swept or worn away—
The key-stones of the arch! though all were o'er,
For us re-peopled were the solitary shore.

"The beings of the mind are not of clay; Essentially immortal, they create And multiply in us a brighter ray And more beloved existence: that which fate
Prohibits to dull life, in this our state
Of mortal bondage, by these spirits supplied
First exiles, then replaces what we hate; Watering the heart, whose early flowers have died,
And with a fresher growth replenishing the void.

"Such is the refuge of our youth and age,
The first from hope, the last from vacancy;
And this warm feeling peoples many an age,
And may be that which grows beneath mine eye:
Yet there are things whose strong reality
Out-shines our fairy land, in shape and hues
More beautiful than our fantastic sky,
And the strange constellations which the muse
O'er her wild universe is skilful to diffuse.

This leads the author to the recollection of his native land, and to the thoughts of its language, in his expressing of which, the aspirations of the poet after immortality disclose themselves, though with sufficient modesty.

"I've taught me other tongues—and in strange eyes
Have made me not a stranger: to the mind
Which is itself, no changes bring surprise;
Nor is it harsh to make, nor hard to find A country with—aye, or without mankind;
Yet was I born where men are proved to be,
Not without cause; and should I leave behind
The inviolate island of the sage and free,
And seek me out a home by a remoter sea?

"Perhaps I loved it well; and should I lay My ashes in a soil which is not mine, My spirit shall resume it—if we may Unbelieved seek's sanctuary. I twine My hopes of being remembered in my line With my land's language. If too fond and far,
These aspirations in their scope incline, If my fame should be as my fortunes are,
Of hasty growth or blight, and dull oblivion bar,

"My name from out the temple where the dead
Are honored by the nations—let it be—
And light the laurels on a loftier head!
And be the Spartan's epitaph on me—"Sparta hath many a worthier son than he!"—
Mean time I seek no sympathies, nor need:
The thorns which I have reaped are of the tree I planted. They have torn me—and I bleed:
I should have known what fruit would spring from such a seed.

His lordship then draws a gloomy picture of the total declension of Venice from what she was when she "sate in state, throned on her hundred isles," to her present state of humiliated condition, when

"Her thirteen hundred years of freedom done,
"Sinks like a sea-weed into whence she rose."

On which the author bursts into the following beautiful apostrophe—

"Better be whelmed beneath the waves And shine, even in destruction's depth, her foreign foes,
From whom submission wrings an infamous repose.

"Statues of glass—all shivered—the long file
Of her dead doges are declined to dust;
But where they dwelt, the vast and sumptuous pile,
Bespeaks the pageant of their splendid trust, Their sceptre broken, and their sword in rust,
Have yielded to the stranger—empty halls,

"The answer of the mother of Brasidas to the strangers who praised her son.

This streets, and foreign aspects, such as must Too oft remind her who and what she is,
Have hung a desolate cloud o'er Venice's lovely walls."

Fallen, however, as it is, the poet suggests consolation and redemption of the glories of that state, from the muse, which, as the attic muse makes Athens still live in unimpaired fame, will hand down Venice with lasting honor to an admiring posterity.

"When Athens' armies fell at Syracuse, And fetter'd thousands bore the yoke of war,
Redemption rose up in the attic muse,
Her voice their only ransom from afar:
See! as they chant the tragic hymn, the car
Of the o'er-master'd victor stops, the reins Fall from his hands—his idle scimitar Starts from his belt—he reads his captive's chains,
And bids him thank the bard for freedom and his strains.

"Thus, Venice, if no stronger claim were thine,
Were all thy proud historic deeds forgot,
Thy choral memory of the bard divine,
Thy love of Tasso should have cut the knot Which ties thee to thy tyrant; and thy lot Is shameful to the nations—most of all, Albion! to thee: the ocean queen should not Abandon ocean's children: in the fall Of Venice think of thine, despite thy watery wall.

"I lov'd her from my boyhood—she to me
Was as a fairy city of the heart,
Rising like water-columns from the sea,
Of joy the sojourn, and of wealth the mart:
And Otway, Ratcliff, Schiller, Shakspear, all art,
Had stamp'd her image in me—and even so,
Altho' I found her thus, we did not part,
Perchance even dearer in her day of woe, Than when she was a boast, a marvel and a show.

"I can re-people with the past—and of The present there is still for eye and thought,
And meditation chastened down, enough;
And more it may be than I hoped or sought;
And of the happiest moments which were wrought Within the web of my existence, some From these, fair Venice! have their colors caught:
There are some feelings time cannot be-numb, Nor torture shake, or mine would now be cold and dumb.

"But from their nature will the tannen*
grow Loftiest on loftiest and least shelter'd rocks, Rooted in barrenness, where nought below
Of soil supports them 'gainst the Alpine blows
Of eddying storms; yet springs the trunk, and rocks
The howling tempest, till its height and frame
Are worthy of the mountains from whose blocks
Of bleak, gray granite into life it came,
And grew a giant tree; the mind may grow the same.

"Existence may be borne, and the deep root
Of life and suffering make its firm abode
In bare and desolated bosoms: mute
The camel labours with the heaviest load,
And the wolf dies in silence—not bestow'd In vain should such example be; if they,
Things of ignoble or of savage mood, Endure and shrink not, we of nobler make May temper it to bear—it is but for a day.

"All suffering doth destroy, or is destroy'd, Even by the sufferer, and in each event Ends—some with hope replenish'd and rebuoy'd,
Return to whence they came—with like intent,
And weave their web again: some bow'd and bent Wax gray and ghastly, withering ere their time,
And perish with the reed on which they lean;
Some seek devotion, toil, war, good or crime According as their souls were form'd to sink or climb.

IMPORTANT RECIPES.

On Thursday last, a man in Oliver-street, after imprudently drinking cold water, was seized with very alarming symptoms, from which he was relieved by Dr. John De Alton White, who dissolved half an ounce of camphor in a gill of brandy—of this, three parts were made and given at intervals of three minutes—which soon gave the patient relief.—The Doctor communicates this for the good of the public. [Col.]

FROM HAVANA.
By the schr Eagle, we have received from our correspondent, a file of the "Noticioso," to the 1st inst. It is entirely destitute of political intelligence. The subjoined letter and Prices Current, will give a view of the political and commercial situation of Havana. They are from a gentleman of intelligence and veracity; and may be relied upon—

"Havana, June 30.

"GENTLEMEN—With the exception of a sudden rise of about 20 per cent, on all provisions from the United States, owing to the accounts we have received here of the capture of Pensacola, the enclosed Prices Current of this market is correct.

I have nothing more to communicate; and things remain here perfectly quiet. American vessels continue to arrive as usual, and there is not the least sensation visible in this government in regard to Americans.

With respect,
I am, gentlemen,
Your most obt. servant."

Extract of a letter to the editor of the Charleston Times, dated Havana, July 1:
"Times are getting extremely dull with us—but little doing in the shipping way and I scarce recollect to have seen the harbour so bare of Americans, notwithstanding produce keeps up, and sales of imports difficult at saving prices.

"The topic of conversation for the week past has been the subject of war between Spain and the United States, and not without some cause for apprehensions, even amongst our best politicians. We had been for some time past apprised of General Jackson's hostile appearance in the neighborhood of Pensacola, and listened with ridicule to the insinuations of the Spaniards that he intended to attack that place; but we were much staggered to see on the 26th ult, the American schooner Washington, bearing a "Flag of Truce," direct from that port with Spanish troops and passengers, bringing with them the capitulation of Pensacola to the American forces.—In an instant, rumor, with her ten thousand mouths, announced a declaration of war by the United States.—Speculation was not asleep, you may be assured; the wise men sold to the fools—Flour which was merely nominal at 15 dols. sold for 19 and 20; rice rose from 18 to 10 dols in a moment, and the whole day was passed in scheming speculations, conjecturing causes, and inventing lies; a scene of as anxious confusion and solicitude as I remember to have witnessed; a confiscation of American property, and embargo, we were told were to take place immediately; those who were ready for sea were damming the consignees because they were not cleared, and it was with no little difficulty that those who were discharging, were restrained from slipping their cables and putting to sea without leave or licence, "Moro pass," "Doctor's bill," or "stores"—but the next day, to the utter astonishment of all, Americans were suffered to depart in peace, and that flag, which had scarcely been seen on the Moro for nearly three weeks, was now flying to announce arrivals from all parts of the states.
Speculation died in spasms, and rumor having broke a blood vessel, bled to death, which closed the scene of confusion.— Things have again got settled, and Pensacola will likely supply us pretty much with lumber and tar, pitch, turpentine and shingles—So that in the end the supposed injured party will have the best of the bargain;
for that place, which has always been a tax, will now yield a revenue. The affair is talked of now merely as if it were a bruised leg—mortification may take place, but the skin is only scratched.

"Our market continues with little or no improvement—Philadelphia and Baltimore flour 184 dols; New-Orleans 151 to 16; rice is quoted at 9 dols—a quantity would not bring over 84 pgs; boards and scantling 30—coffee, sugar, and molasses without a variation. The city and harbor are not unusually sickly, but few cases of fever have occurred lately."

From the N. York Commercial Adve. July 16.
The fast sailing ship Pacific, one of the line of regular packets, capt. Williams, arrived below last evening from Liverpool, which place she left 1st of June. One of the owners who went down to the ship, has positively favored us with London and Liverpool papers to the 28th May, and a price current of the 30th.

The London Courier of the 29th of May,

to alter that arrangement.

his right by Mr. Boswell, member of Parliament. On his left was Mr. Rush, the American Ambassador. Among the toast drank was, "Mr. Rush, the American Ambassador, and the admirer of Burns in the U. S." After the toast, Mr. Rush said, "he felt highly gratified in being present on the occasion, and honored, in having his name coupled with that of the illustrious man, whose memory they were met to celebrate. Burns addressed himself directly to the heart, and consequently the impressions produced, was indelible. His works were universally read and admired in America—and he trusted they would be so, when present empires were crumbled in dust."

The bill, for the Parliament, for amending the Regency Act, enacted "that in case Parliament shall be separated, at the period of the Queen's demise, a proclamation is to be forthwith issued calling it together within sixty days. If there should be no Parliament at the occurrence of such event, and in case it should happen before the day of meeting appointed by writ of summons, a proclamation should be issued on the meeting either on the day appointed, or within sixty days. If the event shall happen on or after the day appointed by such writ, then a proclamation is to be issued in like manner for the Parliament to meet within sixty days. The last clause enacts that nothing in the present Bill is to affect the provisions of any other Act providing for the meeting of Parliament."

A letter from Madrid, of the 7th of May, in speaking of the Floridas, says—
"We are far from believing that our diplomatic discussions with the United States, will lead to a rupture. It is possible that the affair may be terminated by an avoluntary cession of the Floridas on our part, on receiving a pecuniary indemnity from the United States. It is asserted that a negotiation is opened with reference to this question."

To the friends of Humanity.
A N aged, infirm, and widowed mother, is desirous to receive information of THOMAS BURTON CARTER, an only son, concerning whom she has not heard any thing, on which reliance can be placed, for nearly three years. He removed from this place to the state of Ohio about five years ago. The last certain account she had from him, was from Cadiz in that state. He is about twenty five years of age; by trade a tailor. Vague rumours has recently pronounced him dead: A letter communicating information relative to him, directed to Henry Tutwiler, P. M. at this place, would confer a peculiar kindness on an afflicted woman.

Editors of Newspapers generally, are interested to give this article a place in their columns a few weeks. Harrisburg, Rockingham & Co. (Vir) July 13

He took with him a green cloth coat, a new fur hat with cash around it—his other clothing not recollected. I will give 50 dollars if he is apprehended in the District of Columbia—25 dollars if taken in the state of Maryland—and the above reward if taken out of the state, and all reasonable expenses paid. French Creek Boarding School.
The following is published for the information of Parents: HAVING long believed that a School on a plan different from most others in many respects, would be beneficial to society, and apprehending that with all its cares, and the responsibility inseparable from such a concern, I could more cheerfully devote my time to the education of children than to any other business, I have concluded to establish a BOARDING SCHOOL for GIRLS.—With this view I have purchased the FRENCH CREEK FARM, four miles east of the yellow springs, on the Norristown and Philadelphia road, situated in Pile-land and Vincent townships, Chester county, twenty-seven miles from Philadelphia, combining many conveniences for the support of such an institution; and having let the farm, etc. in a way calculated to supply the family with provisions, I propose to devote my attention, with the aid of suitable assistants, to the education of the children who may be placed under my care.

In selecting the pupils, it is not proposed to be governed entirely by their ages, nor to require that they shall all be members of the religious society of Friends; but as the school rules will be very few in number and very simple, it is my wish that none may be sent contrary to their own inclination, nor any one who would not be likely to be good examples to the other scholars, and treat them with kindness and affection.

The price for board and tuition will be two hundred Dollars per annum, one quarter always to be paid in advance—no restrictions respecting the kind of clothing are intended, nor respecting the frequency of the changes that parents may require; the washing will be charged at the ordinary price per dozen—children may be admitted for one quarter only, and such as are entered for a longer period, may nevertheless be removed at the expiration of any quarter.—The communication with Philadelphia will be frequent and easy by stage, and a house of entertainment kept by the farmer for the accommodation of persons having business at the school.

Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Grammar, Geography and the use of Maps and globes, will be taught, together with such other branches as the progress of the children and experience may render expedient. The school to open the first of the 5th month next. For further information apply to Edward Stabler, Alexandria, or to EMMOR KIMBER. 2d mo 21 3t

Valuable Land for Sale.
I WILL sell the farm on which I reside, known by the name of Indian Town, and containing about one thousand acres. It is situated in Charles Co. Md. on Nanjemoy Creek near its mouth, about seven miles from Port Tobacco, and forty from Washington City. Few farms combine greater advantages than this; added to a fertility of soil equal to any in the country, it binds on the creek nearly two miles, which affords great facility in getting its productions to market, and precludes the necessity of much fencing; the creek affords in their seasons, fish and wild fowl in abundance.—The soil is peculiarly adapted to the growth of Tobacco, Wheat and Indian Corn, and the plaster has been found from experience to act on it admirably. There are now about 100 acres in clover, some of which is well set. The improvements are a new two story dwelling house 16 by 40 feet, kitchen, barn, stables, carriage house, with every other necessary out house, the whole in good repair. There is also a wind-mill in good order, the toll of which affords meal enough for the support of the farm.—Also, one other tract containing 115 acres in the forest, about three miles distant, entirely in the wood. There is a well of excellent water in the yard, and several springs on different parts of the farm. The premises may be viewed, and the terms known by application to the subscriber. Should the above farm be unsold on the 1st of Sept. next, I will lease it for a term of years. THEOPHILUS HARGRAVE. Indian Town, June 29 mtht

Charles County Court. March Term, 1818.

ON application to Charles county court by petition in writing of John Smith of Charles county, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned therein, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath, so far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said John Smith has resided two years immediately preceding the time of his application, in the state of Maryland, and being also satisfied that the said John Smith is in actual confinement for debt, and the said John Smith having entered into bond with sufficient security for his personal appearance in Charles county court, to answer such allegations as his creditors may make against him—it is therefore ordered and adjudged that the said John Smith be discharged from imprisonment; and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers edited in the District of Columbia, once a week for two months successively before the third Monday of August next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the said Court, at Charlestown, in said county, on the said third Monday of August next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to show cause why the said John Smith should not have the benefit of the several insolvent laws as prayed. Given under my hand this 20th day of June 1818. Teste, JOHN BARNES, Clk. June 27 Th2m

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 3d inst. Negro JEM, about 5 feet 5 inches high, 25 or 26 years of age, stout and well made, except that he is perhaps a little knock-kneed; his complexion dark, has a large scar on the upper lip, occasioned, it is said, by his falling, when a child, on some edged tool; has a down look when spoken to, and is apt to be short and insolent in answering. The clothes he took with him are not recollected, except a red flannel shirt, a pair of Russia duck sailor's trousers, and a coarse wool hat with broad brim, nearly half worn. Having gone off without any provocation, it is probable his intention is to steer his course towards Baltimore or Pennsylvania, and pass for a free-man. He has haunted the scene the two last seasons in Pomokeny, where he may have gone, or perhaps to Alexandria, where he is also a little acquainted. If taken 20 miles from home, or out of the county, I will give 20 dollars for securing him in any goal, or if taken 50 miles from home, or out of the state, I will give the above reward of fifty dollars.

600 acres of Land for sale.

THIS Tract is situated in Western-land county, Virginia, adjacent to Mr. Garnett Hunter's Plantation, and contiguous to the waters of the Potomac. The neighborhood is good—water excellent, and very desirable situations for building. A considerable proportion of the land is well timbered, besides a good deal of cedar, pine and other wood, sufficiently convenient to make it an object for those who may be disposed to send it to market—it is nearly equi-distant from Baltimore, Washington and Norfolk.

Any one wishing to purchase may apply to ROGER JONES,
Also, a very valuable LOT, containing 140 acres, being a part of the late Mr. John Turberville's tract—within 6 miles of Georgetown, 3 from the Little Falls Bridge, and near to the turnpike leading from thence to Wiley's, in Fairfax county, Va. A great proportion of this land is exceedingly well timbered, and that part which is not, is so recently cleared as to be in an active state for cultivation, and already in a productive condition.—For terms, apply to PHILIP C. JONES, Esq. in Leesburg, Va. or to R. JONES.

BILL IN CHANCERY.

versus

James B. Dunnington, Robert Dunnington, Francis Taylor and Elizabeth B. his wife, James Bloxham and Catharine his wife, William Simmons and Esther his wife, heirs of William Dunnington. THE Complainant alleged in his bill that the Respondents have in possession the real estate of their deceased father Wm. Dunnington, whose personal estate was not sufficient for the payment of his debts. Wm. Dunnington's estate is indebted to the complainant in a large sum of money. The object of the bill is to procure a decree for the sale of the land, for the payment of the debts remaining unpaid by the personal estate. Some of the heirs of Wm. Dunnington are non-residents.—It is thereupon, at motion of the Complainant, ordered that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Alexandria Gazette for the space of three months, to the intent that the absent defendants may have notice of this application, and of the subject and object of the bill, and may be warned to appear in this court in person or by a solicitor, to shew cause, if any there be, wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed. Teste, JOHN BARNES, Clk.

Dr. Thomson's System of Chemistry.

IN FOUR VOLUMES OCTAVO. THE preceding edition of Dr. Thomson's Chemistry, had acquired so much reputation both in England and upon the continent of Europe, that a new edition, comprising the new facts with which the science had been enriched, and the new views of the subject, which extended knowledge had suggested as indispensable, was eagerly looked for by the scientific world. A new edition has accordingly appeared, wherein the former edition of five volumes has been condensed into four.

All the new discoveries, and all the new theories of Chemical Phenomena, have been considered and embraced in the present improved edition: so that it is indispensable to the chemical student, as presenting the only condensed view of the changes and alterations in chemical doctrine, which the discoveries of the last ten years have suggested. No apology therefore can be necessary for reprinting such a book in this country; for the press does not furnish a substitute for it. But, there is so much theoretical suggestion—so much abstract calculation—so much dubious validity—that notes and illustrations are absolutely necessary, not merely to render the book more useful, but more intelligible.

Under these impressions, I thought fit to write notes in illustration (and sometimes in contradiction) of the work itself, rather than to make any abridgement of it. Those who wish to know the modern views of chemical science, must peruse it; and to very many who will be anxious to study it, elucidation will be necessary. I have endeavored to supply these, to the best of my ability; regardless whether my own opinions are in dissonance or coincidence with those of my author; leaving to the reader to decide between us.

The work will be published, with notes and illustrations, in four volumes 8vo.
THOMAS COOPER, M. D.
CONDITIONS.

I. The work will be printed on a superfine paper, with a new small pica letter; and will be published early in the ensuing summer.
II. It will be illustrated with number of cuts, of which several have been necessarily added to the London edition.
III. It will be delivered to subscribers at $12—to non-subscribers at $14, in boards. The London edition sells for $18.
Subscriptions will be received by

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE'S MEDICINE STORE, No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges.

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humors and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mild est purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Tape-worm or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tenia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS and MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West India and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a course of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance; they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders, Violent cramps in the stomach and bowels, Loss of appetite, Indigestion, Impurity of blood, Melancholy, Hysterical affection, Gout in the stomach, Inward weaknesses, Pains in the limbs, and debility, Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ring-worms, scabiness, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.
